

HIM!

Luke 23:33

“Calvary is Eden in reverse. In the garden, God pronounced man guilty. At the Cross, man pronounced God guilty. In the garden, God pronounced the sentence of death on man. At the Cross, man pronounced the sentence of death on God. God had driven man out of His garden; now man would drive God out of His city.

The Cross reveals the full extent of human sin. Sin began in the garden but it did not end there. In our human nature, there is a deep resistance toward God. It is in our nature to hate Him. In the story of the Cross, this hatred reaches its full expression.”¹

As we come to the central scene in the crucifixion story notice the change in Luke’s style, pacing and emotion.

THE QUESTION

All of this is history, theology ... the key question is: What will you do with Him?
